OUR SECOND MILL END SALE STARTS TO-MORROW MORNING.

These Mill End Sales, copyrighted by Mr. C. A. Lockhart, are held in principal cities, and represent an evolution in modern merchandising—whereby he contracts with the largest mills and factories for all mill ends, remnants, surplus stock, etc., and by personally conducted sales in leading stores disposes of the goods thus obtained. We are determined that THIS sale shall far surpass even our former phenomenally successful Mill End Sale, and therefore offer values for Monday that appear incredibly rich, but which are exactly as represented. Hundreds of other bargains of equal merit remain unavoidably unmentioned, but will be in evidence when you come to-morrow to

The Greatest Mill End Sale of Them All.
